

Frances Humphrey Lecture Series:

Making the Martin Luther King, Jr. State Holiday

by Bertha Mullins

Thursday, February 23, 2017
6:30 – 8:00 pm

The Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday is a federal holiday, but wasn't always a state holiday. As the chairperson of the Northern Nevada Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday Advisory Committee, Bertha Mullins has a unique insight into the story of the political wrangling involved in creating this state holiday.

Longtime Reno resident Bertha Mullins is known throughout Nevada for her commitment and dedication to increasing the quality of life for families, her public service on boards and community service organizations, and her work in political, economic, and professional arenas.
